MENTOR'S BIO

Vanda Hudak is an experienced HR leader with diverse experience from both the corporate and private sectors. Originally from Slovakia, Vanda moved to Canada in 2002. Building on her progressive career in corporate HR and passion for personal development, she expanded her professional endeavours to include Career and Life Coaching.

During her 15+ years at RBC, she contributed to several key HR initiatives and programs, such as building an Inclusive Recruitment Team, the RBC Career Launch Program and the Reimagine HR, a global HR transformation program. As a passionate Diversity and Inclusion leader, she always looks for opportunities to enable people to leverage their uniqueness and appreciate the uniqueness of others. Her positive impact and contributions were recognized on many occasions, both internally and externally, through various awards, including individual awards such as the RBC Performance Gold Award, Career Edge Mentor of the Year Award, team recognition from the Canadian HR Awards, and the CSPN Women in Leadership Award Nominee.
