Entrepreneurship Workshop with David Cohen: Side Hustle and Heart

Author | Business Coach | Speaker | Facilitator

Join David Cohen for an interactive workshop on 8 ways you can succeed in your business and think differently about your life/business. Today, he is committed to helping others overcome the challenges stopping them from becoming successful and confident leaders.

Entrepreneurship can be a satisfying and rewarding career path for anyone if they approach it with the right attitude. There are several paths one can take to become a business owner to create different streams of income and increase your chances of success. In this session, you will get to learn what it takes to launch an idea, get support to help make it happen and have the steps to succeed in life and business.
