A Financial Chat with Shay Myers: Money Mindset

Financial Advisor | Educator | Youth Mentor

Join Shay Myers, a Financial Professional on understanding the money mindset. Good financial decisions start by being able to distinguish between needs and wants. We will look at the true cost of using credit cards, good vs. bad debt and how a credit score is your financial report. There are many benefits of learning a habit of savings from a young age. Here we learn practical ways to save money and how to balance a monthly budget.

Shay will also be sharing her career journey and how she became a Financial Advisor. You will get an opportunity to learn how to tap into the financial industry and start an entrepreneurship in finance.
