Mentor-Led Event

A Conversation with Zahra Syed: Project Manager at The Hospital for Sick Children

Project Manager | Mentor

Youths are welcome to join Zahra Syed as she shares the story of her career journey, her extensive experience in project management, and offers valuable tips and advice for those looking to enter the healthcare industry.

As a Project Manager at The Hospital for Sick Children, Zahra specializes in virtual care, remote care, and enterprise-level projects. With five years at SickKids, Zahra has led numerous highly complex, multi-million dollar projects.

Through sharing her insights, Zahra will provide practical advice to help youth participants navigate their career paths and leverage opportunities in the healthcare sector.
